

LINKS

Someone will want links. Links there are. Please note: The intent is not to attack any political figure, or to vouch for the philosophy behind any of the following websites, or even necessarily to vouch for every statement of every article linked below. I wish only to show that these concerns are current. All links acquired in November 2008. Words in italics NOT part of the URLs. Note: links not recommended for Sabbath reading. These are provided as a sampling.
